OPA ANSWERS QUESTIONS ON PERMANENT GASOLINE RATIONING

- Q. Who is entitled to an "A" Book?
- A. Any owner or person entitled to the use of a passenger motor vehicle with five exceptions as noted on Form R-534 is entitled to a Basic "A" ration period.
- Q. Who is entitled to a supplemental ration?
- A. Every vehicle for which a basic "A" ration is issued may qualify for a supplemental ration if it is driven in the pursuit of an occupation and if the requirements for a supplemental ration are satisfied.
- Q. What are the requirements for the issuance of a supplemental ration?
- A. The first requirement is driving of more than 150 miles per month. If the applicant shows that he will require an average occupational mileage of 150 miles per month or less for a three month period, no supplemental ration may be issued. The second requirement is that the excess total driving applied for must be in the pursuit of an occupation. This includes both driving to and from the place of work and driving in carrying on the work and includes all occupations in which the vehicle will be used.
- Q. What other requirements must be satisfied in order to obtain a supplemental ration?
- A. In addition to the above, the applicant must satisfy one of two alternative conditions in connection with the use of his vehicle. He must show either (1) that he has entered into a bona fide ride sharing arrangement in connection with such occupational driving; or (2) that he cannot enter into the required type of ride sharing arrangement but that he is carrying as many persons as he can reasonably be expected to carry AND that no other means of transportation can be used by him.
- Q. What do you mean by a ride sharing arrangement?
- A. The only type of ride sharing arrangement which will satisfy the requirements of the regulation is an arrangement under which the motor vehicle will be used to carry at least four persons regularly in connection with their occupations. One of these four persons may be the applicant himself if the driving will be in connection with his own occupation. If such ride sharing arrangement has been entered into, each of the persons will be carried, other than the applicant, will be required to sign the application form in the spaces provided, and to state the mileage and number of days per month that he will be carried in the vehicle.
- Q. Does this mean that four or more persons must be carried for the entire mileage for which a supplemental ration is requested?
- A. So long as there is a bona fide ride sharing arrangement, which was entered into in good faith, it is not necessary that each mile to be driven be covered by a ride sharing arrangement, since in some cases that will be impossible. For example, it may be impossible occasionally for the persons carried to ride home each time they may expect to do so because of overtime work, etc. Furthermore, the applicant, because of the location of his residence may be able to secure passengers for only part of the trip. Local Boards are instructed to scrutinize very closely this phase of the ride sharing plan.
- Q. What happens if the ride sharing arrangement is carried on by means of rotation of several automobiles rather than by one automobile?
- A. In this case, application must be made for each automobile to be used in such an arrangement based upon the mileage to be driven in that automobile. Wherever possible, all such applications should be submitted at the same time.

Ability Under Pressure Keeps Gladwyne On Top

Baseball fans hereabouts have been giving various reasons why Gladwyne hasn't been out of first place in the Main Line League since the season started.

Briefly they include: They started with virtually the same club that gave them runner-up honors in 1941.

They have the best pitching staff in the league.

They have the best fielding club. Their hitting has been timely and consistent, etc.

These are all sound reasons, but as the season progresses it becomes evident that the major cause for Gladwyne's success has been its championship reaction under pressure.

Gladwyne usually plays its snap-pest, most efficient ball when up against Manoa and Narberth, its chief rivals. And every time it is seriously challenged it always

Hold Services for George Becker

Solemn Requiem Mass was held at St. Margaret's Church, Narberth, Monday morning for George Becker, who died July 14 while on a fishing trip off Little Creek in the Delaware Bay.

Mr. Becker's body was recovered last Friday morning by the captain of the fishing boat which had taken him and his brother, Charles J. R. Becker, of Narberth, and a group of friends out for a day's fishing. Examination showed that he had died from a heart attack, not from drowning, since there was no water in his lungs.

Mr. Becker, whose home was at 107 Avon rd., Merion, is survived by his brother, and his wife, Mrs. Mary J. Becker.

Appoint Jenkins Boro Magistrate

Legionnaire Will Finish Smedley's Unexpired Term

The appointment of J. Louis Jenkins as a justice of the peace in Narberth Borough was announced this week.

Jenkins, who lives at 104 Price av., replaces Horace T. Smedley, who resigned to become superintendent of grounds at Bryn Maws College.

The appointment was made by Governor James, who by law is required to fill all such vacancies.

Narberth for the first time in many months now has two justices of the peace, the quota allotted to the Borough. The other magistrate is Otto Duer.

Jenkins is a member of the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion. He is the son of Charles A. Jenkins, local builder and carpenter.

According to the terms of Smedley's unexpired commission, Jenkins will serve until the first Monday in January, 1944. Prior to that he will have to stand for reelection.

Jenkins' appointment was endorsed by leading Republicans in Narberth.

The new magistrate is a member of the Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club. Until recently he served as relief man at the Narberth Fire Company.

Weekly Test of Air Raid Signals

State Outlines Rules Under Which Alarms Will Be Sounded

The State Council of Defense has issued the following regulations concerning air raid alarms:

"The audible signal for an air raid attack shall be sounded only upon receipt of an air raid alarm over the Civil Air Raid Warning System of the First Fighter Command; and the audible signal for an air raid drill shall be sounded only upon instructions from the State Council of Defense.

"Until further notice, weekly practice or test alarms shall be held each Saturday at 12:05 p.m., Eastern War Time. The U. S. Citizens' Defense Corps shall not be mobilized by these test alarms and no attention need be paid to these test alarms by the general public until further notice as the test alarms are held to test the mechanical readiness and effectiveness of the alarms, and to acquaint the public with said alarms. The test alarms should not be more than 20 seconds in duration and in no case should be followed by an "All Clear" signal."

The above rules, regulations and orders are adopted and promulgated by the State Council of Defense pursuant to authority vested in it by Section 3 (a) of Act No. 14 approved April 13, 1942, known as the "Air Raid Precautions Act."

Attention is called to the fact that Section 9 of said act provides that any person violating any of these rules, regulations and orders is, upon conviction thereof, subject to a fine and imprisonment.

Reading Fair Will Be Held

Reading's 28th agricultural fair will be held at Reading, September 13 to 20.

Dropping attractions not approved by war rationing boards, fair officials are streamlining the big show with special stress being applied to the livestock, agricultural and youth educational departments to conform with suggestions made by Claude R. Wickard, secretary of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Missing from the entertainment program will be the auto races and auto thrill shows, banned by Joseph Eastman of the Office of Defense Transportation because of the tires and gasoline the machines would use. Supplanting these attractions will be such appropriate features as military and musical pageants and drill competitions.

Announce Calendar For New School Year

The Narberth Public School will open on September 8, it was announced at a meeting of the School Board held last Thursday night.

Watrous Speaks to Members of Rotary

Business men to survive now-days must be alert for new trends, declared Raymond L. Watrous, 215 Avon rd., Narberth, in a talk at the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club on Tuesday noon.

The meeting of Rotarians was held at the Overbrook Golf Club. Dr. Munro Purse, recently elected president, presided.

Gene Davis, Narberth merchant, thanked members of the Club for the support they gave the All-stars and U. S. Marines baseball game for the benefit of the Navy Relief Fund.

Mickey Gavin Nine In Second Place

St. Margaret's Still Sets Pace in Montdel League

After playing indifferent ball during the early part of the campaign Mickey Gavin's Good Counsel nine, from Bryn Mawr, has started a climb, which has carried it to second place in the Montdel League standings. The Gavinmen, supplied with superb pitching by three first-line hurlers, climbed on the heels of the pace-setting St. Margaret's nine, of Narberth, by jolting both Annunciation and St. Denis, two of the strongest clubs in the circuit.

With Joe Tobin and Harry Desert pitching a pair of on-batters Good Counsel turned back Annunciation at Brookline 5-0 Thursday, then came back on Monday to thump St. Denis 11-1 at Haverford. Coming on top of a second setback handed Annunciation Monday by St. Thomas of Villanova, these two wins boosted the Gavinmen into second place. Two games behind St. Margaret's.

Of course St. Margaret's was making things tough for the rest of the circuit by gaining a pair of wins. The Narberth nine secured one the hard way, knocking off Sacred Heart, of Manoa, at Narberth, Thursday by a 4-3 count, gained another by the forfeit route Monday night from St. Colmans, of Ardmore.

Joe Tobin lost a no-hit game, when Walt Plantz, Annunciation second baseman and catcher, lined a single over center in the sixth inning of the game at Brookline Thursday. Tobin had the Brooks under his thumb during the entire contest, for he struck out nine walked only three and was never in danger of being scored upon. Jim McCaughn pitched shut-out ball for three innings to match Tobin, but Fred Wellman singled

C. P. Cook Dies In Stroudsburg

Noted Historian Was Narberth Businessman; Merion Resident

Funeral services were held on Monday at Riegelsville, Bucks County, for Chester Preston Cook, president of the Montgomery County Historical Society. He was 64.

Mr. Cook, who lived on Rockland av., Merion, died on July 16 in Stroudsburg, less than 24 hours after entering a hospital for treatment of a superficial cut suffered while shaving himself.

Mr. Cook, one of the best informed authorities on the history of Montgomery County, was born November 6, 1877, in Baltimore, son of Joseph P. and Sarah Cook. He attended Ohio Northern University, where he studied engineering. Upon his graduation, he went to work as an engineer in Vermont and later became an assistant supervisor with the Paoli Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

In 1905, he left the railroad and started a coal business in Narberth. In the same year he moved to Merion.

Mr. Cook is survived by his wife, Mrs. Laura Riegel Cook; a daughter, Mrs. G. H. Wilson, of Newark, and a son, Alan Riegel Cook, of Riegelsville.

5 Officer Candidates Listed by Mistake As Regular Selectees

In the report of Local Board No. 3, printed last week, giving the names of men inducted into the service, the names of Frank Bernard Coffman, Elaine Ely, John Morris Templeman, Abraham Browning Canfield, Jr., and Charles Wallace O'Donnell were listed as regular selectees.

According to Board 3 officials, this was in error, as these five men volunteered for service and reported as Volunteer Officer Candidates. Otherwise, it is stated, they would not have been called at this time.

Bus Shortage Means Early Start For Some High Students

Wadsworth to Head Car Sharing Plan

Motorists Who Cooperate May Obtain More Gasoline

Appointment of John W. Wadsworth as share-the-car administrator for Narberth Borough was announced this week.

Wadsworth lives at 529 Dudley av.

Francis S. Challenger, chairman of the Defense Council, announced the appointment.

The new administrator will set up his registration office in the Defense Headquarters in the Community Building on Windsor av. Hours when he will be at the office to give out registration forms or answer other questions will be announced next week.

Appointment of an administrator who will organize the car pooling plan, Challenger explained, will conserve gasoline and aid the movement of people to and from work.

Following his appointment Wadsworth designated the following days and hours when persons may register and obtain information on car-sharing:

Mondays and Thursdays from 7 to 10 p.m.

Narberth's community car sharing program is designed to increase the number of persons who ride to work on each gallon of gasoline. Public transportation facilities only carry about 18 percent of the workers and it has become a necessity to maintain all the transit advantages of the automobile.

On July 22 a new gas rationing plan for the Eastern States went into effect. Under the provisions of that plan a basic "A" book of coupons was issued to all car-owners

Schedule Announced For Narberth Pupils In High School

Narberth's high school students will have to get up a little earlier next year—but they can blame it on the war.

The reason is shortage of buses. The Philadelphia Suburban Transportation Company which usually supplies two buses to the school district for transportation of Narberth's high school students to the Lower Merion Senior and Junior High Schools in Ardmore will only have one bus available this year.

Contract for the one bus was awarded to the company at the School Board meeting last Thursday night.

The bus schedule was announced as follows:

1. Girls to Senior High School, leaves Wynnewood and Chestnut Aves., 7:55 A.M., east on Chestnut to Narberth Ave., to Montgomery Ave. to school. Six stops.

2. Girls to Senior High School, leaves Essex and Windsor Aves., 8:10 A.M., north on Essex Ave. to Montgomery Ave. to school. Eight stops.

3. Boys to Senior High School, leaves Wynnewood and Chestnut Aves., 7:25 A.M., east on Chestnut to Narberth Ave., to Montgomery Ave. to school. Six stops.

4. Boys to Senior High School, leaves Narberth and Woodbine Aves., 7:40 A.M., south on Narberth Ave. to Windsor Ave., west to Essex Ave., north on Essex to Montgomery, to school. Ten stops.

6. Girls to Junior High School, leaves Wynnewood and Chestnut Aves., at 9 A.M., east on Chestnut Ave. to Narberth Ave., north to school. Six stops.

Returning, boys leave Senior High School at 2:50 P.M., girls leave Senior High School at 3:05 and 3:20 P.M., and from Junior High School at 4 and 4:15 P.M. The bus will leave at 3:45 P.M. for delayed Seniors.

Personal Effects Of Chas. E. Walsh Are Left to Widow

Charles E. Walsh, 723 Latches Lane, Merion, left all personal effects to his widow, Hazel C. Walsh, and directed the residue of his $11,000 estate be given to the Pennsylvania Company for Insurances on Lives and Annuities, Philadelphia, to be held under the terms of a deed in trust executed by testator.

Walsh's will was admitted to probate by Register John H. Hoffman, but the contents of the deed in trust are not given. Testator died July 12 in the University Hospital, Philadelphia. His will was written March 31, 1939. Provision for the daughter, Helen W. Walsh, to receive the personal effects, in the event of the prior death of the widow, are contained in the will. The Pennsylvania Company is also named executor.

Names Mrs. Dunlap Census Enumerator

Mrs. Elizabeth R. Dunlap, 120 Elmwood av., Narberth, was appointed School Census Enumerator at the School Board meeting last Thursday night.

NARBERTH RESPONDS—$725 FOR NAVY RELIEF FROM ALL-STAR, MARINES GAME

A check for approximately $725, will be turned over to the Navy Relief Fund as a result of the baseball game between the Main Line League all-stars and the U. S. Marines at Narberth last Friday.

With several ticket reports still to be made, Charles E. Harnden, secretary-treasurer of the Main Line League, said yesterday he had received $836.40 from the game. Of this amount $558.50 was realized from the sale of 1117 tickets. Contributions accounted for $277.90.

Federal tax of five cents on each ticket, meals for 44 members of the Marine team and drill squad and printing bill amounted to $113.10, leaving a balance of $723.30 for the relief fund.

"This was a remarkable showing when you consider that the ordinary twilight game scarcely would have drawn $100," explained Harnden. "The Main Line League owes the success of the game to the splendid cooperation of the local newspaper 'Our Town' and the various civic groups in Narberth, especially the Girl Scouts, Air Raid Wardens, the Harold G. Speakman Post, American Legion, and its auxiliary, the Red Cross, the Navy Nells and the Emergency Feeding and Housing Association. The drum and bugle corps of the Bullock-Sanderson Post, American Legion, of Ardmore, provided just the right color to the occasion. We're proud of the way Narberth came through."

Harnden revealed that the $25 war bond donated by Ray Cabrey, president of the Narberth baseball club, was presented to F. Hardcastle, 3d, of Berkely Apartments, Narberth.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The women who attend the Narberth Red Cross workrooms want to say, "Thank you," in a big way to Mr. Marios Chios, proprietor of the Arcadia Restaurant of Narberth, for all his many kindnesses extended to them.

Monday morning of this week we were all looking forward to a mighty uncomfortable day between the heat and the humidity, nevertheless the "faithful few" were on hand as usual under the guidance of the capable hands of Mrs. G. W. Orth. While we were preparing ourselves for the day's work along came Mr. Chios with one of his hefty men carrying his large electric floor fan. All day long we enjoyed the breezes and the comfort of that fan and all day long our gratitude to Mr. Chios continued with the breeze.

Not only does Mr. Chios think of such things as electric fans but every noon he remembers that Red Cross workers get hungry like everyone else and daily he furnishes a good and nourishing lunch for all who appear at the Work Room. Thanks, Mr. Chios, for everything. Mrs. Grace, of the Borough office, had also thought of us and before Mr. Chios came along with his fan, Mrs. Grace had insisted that we take her only means of comfort against the heat in her office—her fan. We were glad to be able to turn the Borough Office fan upon the arrival of the one furnished by Mr. Chios. Thank you, too, Mrs. Grace, for all the courtesies you have shown us Red Cross women.

An emergency call has been issued by Red Cross Headquarters for a tremendous number of surgical dressings to be finished by the end of August. Will you answer this call? Until further notice surgical dressings will be made Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of every week at the Red Cross Work Room, Forest av. (over the Fire House) in Narberth. We'll be looking for you. H. V. W.

Decision On Two Charges For One-Offense Case, Settles Old Dispute Between Police and Magistrates

An opinion handed down by Judge Harold G. Knight in Montgomery County Court last Friday should settle for all times a dispute that has seen-sawed back and forth for more than a year between police and magistrates in Lower Merion Township as to whether two charges should be lodged against a defendant for the same offense.

Judge Knight in his opinion stated that it was never the intention of the State Legislature to impose two penalties upon a man under the same charge. In reversing the decision of a Norristown magistrate, he judged Joseph Pollinger, Phoenixville, "not guilty" of violating Section 622 of the Motor Vehicle Code which reads that "no person shall authorize or permit a motor vehicle owned by him under his control, to be operated by any person who has no legal right to do so, or in violation of any of the provisions of this act." On this charge Pollinger was fined $25 and costs of $4.45.

On the other charge of violating Article Six, Section 620, Sub Section F of the Code he was charged with committing a misdemeanor for permitting anyone under the influence of liquor to drive. On this charge he was held under $500 bail for Court.

About a year ago on the refusal of Magistrate Walter B. Lofgren, Jr., Ardmore, to judge guilty in cases involving charges of this nature a conference was held with District Attorney Frederick B. Smillie. Present at the conference were Chief of Police Samuel Gearhart, Captain of Detectives William E. Shaffer, and Traffic Sergeant Joseph Mawhinney.

After the conference Lower Merion police altered their general policy in handling such cases but sporadically they returned to the old practice although District Attorney Smillie advised against it. On several occasions, it is known, charges of drunken driving and reckless driving were lodged against the same man.

Pollinger and a friend, Joseph Hasko, also of Phoenixville, were arrested April 19 by Norristown police. They were riding in Pollinger's car and Hasko was driving. Both men were under the influence of intoxicating liquor, according to the testimony.

Lower Merion As Vital Defense Area Seeks Federal Aid For Expansion

Estimates Destructible Property at $480,000,000 Has Important Traffic Arteries Within Boundaries and is Near Industrial Plants

With a population of approximately 40,000 in an area of 24 square miles, and with destructible property valued at $480,000,000 immediately adjacent to defense industries and to the highly industrialized City and County of Philadelphia, Lower Merion Township may well come within the important category of "vital defense areas" as recognized by the Federal Government.

In a statement of facts set forth in communication with the Montgomery County Council of Defense giving reasons why Lower Merion Township is a vital defense area, Walter C. Neely, chairman of the Lower Merion Council of Defense points out that residents of the Township are composed principally of officers and employees engaged in the operation of defense industries in the Philadelphia Metropolitan Area and in defense plants located within the Township.

In addition, the Township is located close to the manufacturing establishments of Philadelphia with guide lines through the area such as the Schuylkill River, and the 4-tract main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Up to the present time the Board of Township Commissioners has appropriated the total sum of $67,108.36 for expenditure by the Defense Council. The Council of Defense is hopeful that the Federal Government will recognize the necessity for granting assistance needed to properly complete its program of defense, and grant priority to Lower Merion in order that it may receive materials, supplies, and other protective articles.

Several important highways traversing the Township have been assigned by the Army as main arteries for movement of troops and supplies, such as City Line, Lincoln Highway, Haverford Road and Montgomery Avenue. Also, passing through the Township, is River Road which has been duly designated for use in evacuating people from Philadelphia who will require shelter, food, medical attention and transportation.

Refreshers—to Help You Forget The Heat and Temper of the Day

Tomato Juice Stands High As Reviver of Wilting Mortals

By Dorothy Greig

Chilled tomato juice drinks are cooling on a hot day.

"THIS will cool your blood," a mother would say of a frosty drink on a withering day. I don't know whether, strictly speaking, she was scientifically accurate—but it doesn't matter. What does matter is that long, chilled drinks are so deliciously refreshing on the tongue they cool us off mentally, if not in actual fact.

And some cooling drinks bestow real benefits.

Tomato juice, for one. A breezy drink, tomato juice is not only cooling but rich in vitamins A, B, and especially C.

Do you like to savor to the full its sunny, fresh tomato flavor? Then simply serve it plain, well chilled. Or perhaps you enjoy it beat with a dash of lemon juice, or in combination with other juices and seasonings. Many do.

To pass to friends in the garden or on the porch—or to that tired man arriving home from work—here are two particularly thirst-quenching and refreshing recipes.

Tomato-Lemon Sherbet-Fizz
Fill a tall glass 3/4 full with tomato juice, add 1 dash of lemon juice and 1 dash of

Lemon Sherbet:
1 cup syrup (white corn syrup)
2 cups water
1/2 lemon, salt
5 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 egg white, stiffly beaten
1 tablespoon sugar

Combine lemon juice with grated lemon rind. Mix together thoroughly the syrup, water and salt and then add to lemon juice and lemon rind. Strain and put in refrigerator tray and freeze to a mush—then beat with rotary egg beater. Stir the sugar into the beaten egg white, fold this into sherbet mixture. Freeze, stirring once or twice while freezing, so that large crystals will not form. Makes one quart.

Tomato-Vegetable Cocktail
1 can (11 oz.) tomato juice
1 tablespoon watercress, finely chopped
1 teaspoon chives, finely chopped
1 tablespoon lime juice
1 teaspoon sugar
1 pinch of salt

Remove watercress leaves from stems and chop leaves very fine. Combine tomato juice, chopped watercress, chopped chives, lime juice, sugar, and salt. Mix thoroughly and chill. Makes 4 glassesful.

County Completes Share-Ride Survey

Potter Finds 57 Employees Drive to Work Alone

The survey conducted by James W. Potter, director of the Court House employees "Share-the-Ride Campaign" shows that 54 of the employees walk to work, with 57 others riding buses, 38 the train or trolley, and 55 others ride in the automobiles of others.

Potter reported that 93 of the employees drive their cars to work, and of this number 57 come to the Court House with no passengers riding with them.

The survey shows that of the 93 who are now driving their car, and the 55 others who are riding with others, that 58 could reach the Court House by bus, five others could walk to work, and 69 could make it to their jobs by train or trolley. Only one of the entire group reported he could get to work by bicycle.

There are 49 of the Court House force who estimate they have up to 5,000 miles of wear in their tires, while 46 have between 5,000 and 10,000 miles, and 15 fortunate ones have over 10,000 miles left in their present rubber supply.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKinn

WE READ a lot about the Russian army and its leaders these days. But what about the Russian people themselves? How are they like Americans and how are they different? "Shooting the Russian War," by Margaret Bourke-White, talks about people and not about politics. Miss Bourke-White and her husband, Erskine Caldwell, went to Moscow in the spring of 1941 and stayed until the Russians had begun their great counter-offensive. Mr. Caldwell gave his account of their experiences in his book, "All Out on the Road to Smolensk," published several months ago. Now we have the story from a woman's viewpoint in his wife's book.

MARGARET BOURKE-WHITE

Margaret Bourke-White is one of our ace photographers, and "Shooting the Russian War," in addition to its entertaining text, contains some of the best photographs that have come out of this war—air raids, front line villages recaptured by the Red Army, workers, farmers and soldiers on duty, and even churches and the people who worship there.

Miss Bourke-White is justly proud of her Stalin photographs, since it is very difficult for an American to get an audience with the Soviet leader. She says that Stalin looked very stern—as though his face was carved out of granite—until she started crawling around on the floor, so she could set her camera at the proper angle. This struck him as funny and he burst out laughing.

The week before the Nazi invasion, the Caldwells were visiting in Georgia, in the South of Russia. The Georgians were delighted to learn that Erskine also had come from Georgia—the United States variety. Their excursion was conducted by the leading poets of Georgia. "Both Georgians grew cotton. Both were famous for corn and oranges. Both had golden sunshine. Both produced beautiful women. But, best of all, both Georgians were noted as the birthplaces of the greatest writers in the land," they said. At this point Miss Bourke-White whispered to her husband that his play "Tobacco Road" had never seen anything like this. He whispered back that they were just a lot of Georgia crackers here, same as back home.

The Nazis try to minimize the German losses, but they can't fool all their people all the time. Harry Flannery, who was successor to William Shirer as a CBS broadcaster from Berlin, and whose book, "Assignment to Berlin," is an excellent sequel to Shirer's Book-of-the-Month Club selection, "Berlin Diary," tells this story which he heard from the Germans themselves. It seems that four German aviators came before St. Peter and asked to be admitted through the pearly gates.

"And who are you?" asked Peter. "We are four German aviators who were shot down over the Channel today."

"Four?" Peter looked at his list. "Sorry," he said, "three of you will have to go below. The communists say that only one was shot down today."

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Williams, 29 Sabine av., Narberth, and their children, Karl, Jr., and Sally, have returned from a two weeks' vacation in Hollidaysburg, Pa., where they visited Mrs. Williams' father, Mr. Edward S. Hainley, and Mr. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Williams.

Mrs. John J. Fineran, 330 Woodbine av., Narberth, has as her guests this week her aunts, Miss Agnes O'Neill and Miss Isabel McCoy, both of Conshohocken. On Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Fineran will be guests at a dinner party to be given by Mr. and Mrs. James V. Fineran, of Conshohocken.

Second Lieutenant Thomas Marshall Forsyth, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth, 6 Wynnewood Court, Narberth, left on Monday for Washington, D. C., on his way to Fort Worth, Texas, after spending a short furlough with his parents.

With a Little Organdy

While there is big news in hand-made white straws bordered with flanges of white ribbon and in cunning little flower turbans and pique types both broad of brim and brimless, it is in the exquisite hats milliners are making of organdy and other diaphanous materials that the thrill of thrills is found. On the head they look as airy and lovely as drifts of snowy clouds on a summer day.

Favorite types have pleatings of the organdy encircling transparent white brims. Other white chapeaux are styled of gleaming white colophane straw made with the intention of stressing their transparency.

Haverford Township Will Not Ask Draft Deferment For Police

Policy of Other Main Line Communities Now in Consideration

One suburban municipality has revoked its policy of asking for draft deferments for policemen, and local selective service boards are beginning to re-examine their policy of granting such deferments.

The first municipality in this area to change its policy was Haverford Township, where last week a resolution was passed discontinuing the practice. The resolution was introduced by Daniel I. McDermott, Preston commissioner.

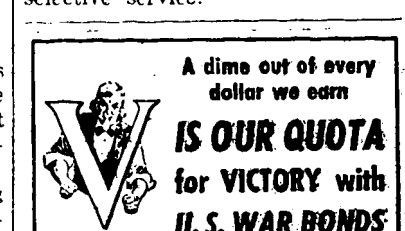

Lower Merion Township has asked for approximately six deferments for patrolmen and six of them have been granted. As far as it could be learned, the Township does not intend to change its policy. In Narberth Borough no cases of deferment requests have arisen.

In the three municipalities authorities have contended that the patrolmen were needed as a vital part of the home defense program.

The most recent case in Lower Merion was that of Patrolman Joseph Sweeney. Because of his age, Sweeney was deferred at one time but is now subject to recall. It is understood that the Township intends to ask for deferment as soon as he receives notice to appear.

Before Haverford Township passed its recent ruling six men were eligible for service and on several of them deferment was asked and granted.

The men involved were Frank Burns, John Hexter, Thomas Sirritto, Carney Bonner, Roy Faussett and Michael Wilcox. Of these six men Burns is now in the U. S. Army and Hexter in the Navy. Faussett plans to enlist in the U. S. Army Air Corps. Wilcox expects to be summoned for an examination soon and the other two men, Sirritto and Bonner, are in line for selective service.

Judge Adjudicates Main Line Estates

Merion Youth Who Became of Age Gets $335,032.69

Daniel J. Murphy, Jr., Merion, who attained his majority April 16, 1942, is awarded a total of $335,032.69 in an adjudication confirming an account handed down by Judge J. Burnett Holland in Orphan's Court.

The money represents trusts established by his parents, Daniel J. and Clara Murphy, under which he was to receive the principal when he reached the age of 21. His father has since died.

In the adjudication the court awarded Attorney Lemuel B. Schofield, Philadelphia, counsel for the accounts, a fee of $12,500 for professional services in connection with the trusts, consent to which had been filed by the beneficiary.

The account was filed by Girard Trust Company, John Monaghan and Clara M. Murphy. Listed as counsel for the accounts are Attorneys Harry J. Alker, Jr., L. B. Schofield and W. Bradley Ward.

Since the audit the son, D. J. Murphy, Jr., executed a deed of trust appointing the Girard Trust Company, Monaghan and his mother, Clara Murphy, as trustees and has set over to them all his right, title and interest in and to the balance for distribution, under certain provisions.

Balances shown in other adjudications handed down by Judge Holland are:

Morris W. Stroud, Lower Merion, $67,293.41.

Ability Under

defending champion, was an excellent example. Manoa had fought desperately over three weeks to draw on even terms with the Keynells, but when they met on the Gladwyne diamond with undisputed possession of first place at stake Gladwyne was very definitely the master.

The Keynells trailed by 5-4 going into the last half of the eighth, but then put on a typical last ditch rally for five big runs that sewed up the ball game to the tune of 9 to 5. The victory was the third for Gladwyne over Manoa in four games.

It marked the first defeat for Manoa's Walt Cantwell, righthand hurler, who was appearing in his sixth game.

He pitched shutout ball for four innings, but then gradually wilted from the heat and the persistent Gladwyne batters. He was touched for ten hits, three of which came during Gladwyne's eighth inning uprising. A base on balls, an error and an infield out were other contributing factors to the five runs in this frame.

Ray Persutti, who took over for Bill O'Donnell in the sixth inning, received credit for the victory, his fourth against one defeat. O'Donnell gave up three runs and six hits in five innings while Persutti allowed two runs and four hits in his four innings on the hill.

Outfielder Kucheruk, with two doubles and a single, paced Gladwyne's attack. Ollie Boyle, Allie Gwynn and Cantwell each had two hits for the losers.

Narberth drew within a game of second place by crushing Brookline, 15-5, in a game limited to seven innings by agreement on account of the heat, and the Collegians walloped Overbrook, 9-5, in the other Sabbath tilts.

Joe Burns and Tyson clubbed out three safeties to spark Narberth's 14-hit assault on three Brookline hurlers. The boroughites sewed up the game with six runs in the third inning and turned it into a rout with six more the following frame. The barrage of hits enabled Lefty Tomlinson to coast to his fourth league victory.

Joe Blong cracked a triple and two singles as the Collegians downed Overbrook behind the eight-hit pitching of Lattanza, who gained his second straight triumph. All three of last Saturday's games were postponed on account of wet grounds.

Gladwyne will seek revenge for two of its defeats when it meets the Collegians at Lansdowne on Saturday. The leaders will entertain Brookline on Sunday. Manoa plays Narberth Saturday and returns to Manoa Sunday to meet the Collegians. Overbrook and Brookline clash in a double-header at Manoa Saturday and Overbrook plays Narberth on Sunday.

CALLING THE TURN

The prestige of the Main Line and especially that of the borough of Narberth was never better upheld than in the Navy Relief baseball game at Narberth last Friday night.

Everyone who had anything at all to do with the game—from the committee heads, the individual who sold 76 tickets down to the person who only bought one—should feel intensely proud over the success of the affair. True, Charley Harnden, genial secretary-treasurer of the Main Line League, and J. J. Cabrey were the guiding lights in the fund drive, but it was a success not because of one or two individuals but because every one in Narberth and in the Main Line League pitched together to put the affair across.

We don't believe the Main Line League or the town of Narberth ever did anything more worthwhile. The amount of money collected was very gratifying even though somewhat short of Mr. Harnden's $1000 goal and the good time shown the 44 Marines who comprised the baseball team and drill squad was deserving and laudatory. Those Marines will never forget the fine hospitality they were shown in Narberth, rest assured of that.

Probably most important thing of all connected with the game was the example set for other leagues and communities.

Already the borough of Norristown has paid tribute to the Main Line's foresight and initiative and is arranging Army and Navy relief games of its own. The residents of Narberth should be happy in the knowledge of having given Norristown and other communities a real goal at which to aim.

* * * ALL-STAR DYNAMITE

Many fans were disappointed at the one-sidedness of the game between the Marines and the Main Line League all-stars. It was never a contest after the first inning and many wondered how the Marines were able to win 29 games from the best semi-pro nines in the greater Philadelphia area.

"The Marines weren't as bad as they looked Friday night," said Walter Hanley, president of the Main Line League. "They just had an off night."

"Also you mustn't overlook the fact that they were up against a very good team. That all-star lineup really packed dynamite. Talk about your dream teams; why, with Bill O'Donnell and Walt Cantwell pitching for the all-stars I'd pit them against anyone."

Incidentally, there was some disappointment and just a little criticism over absence of both O'Donnell and Cantwell, the league's hurling aces, last Friday. O'Donnell was out of town on his vacation and unable to get back, according to George Nellings, co-manager of the Gladwyne team. Someone spread the rumor that O'Donnell pitched for Curry All-Stars in the South Phila. League that night, but Nellings insists it wasn't the same O'Donnell.

Frank Matthews, Manoa manager, frankly admitted that Cantwell had a previous pitching commitment with a team in Chester that night.

Some fans believed that Nellings and Matthews purposely kept their aces away from the all-star game so that they would be in fine trim for last Sunday's first place battle. Few could have blamed them if they had, but that evidently wasn't the case.

We trust that both O'Donnell and Cantwell show up for next Tuesday's Army relief game with Fort Dix at Manoa. The league is going to need its best pitchers if it hopes to win that game. And it will be to the best interests of both hurlers to be present.

Should either O'Donnell or Cantwell fail to appear Tuesday night it will appear that they don't want to do their stint for the service fund. The fans probably wouldn't sympathize with such a course. We've seen fans "ride" stars out of leagues for less cause.

doing any boasting since the financial report of Narberth's Navy relief game was announced. Manoa, so some of the Haverford Township fans claimed, would pass any amount collected by Narberth when it came Manoa's turn to play host to Fort Dix.

The Army relief fund game is only a few days away and we have not heard of any community ticket selling drive similar to that in Narberth before the Navy game.

Perhaps the Manoa people aren't talking and are going about putting over the game in their own way. Let's hope every civic group in Haverford Township is doing something to insure a record crowd at the game. It's a community challenge, one that shouldn't be ignored.

Narberth came through! Manoa and Haverford Township must do likewise!

Johnnie Morning home with a tally in the fourth, and Sam Durant produced a hit to score Ace Bell in the fifth. Singles by Tom Keaveneey, Bell and Durant, a hit batsman and an error produced three more in the seventh.

Harry Desert made his first appearance on the pitching hill in two years a notable one as he halted St. Denis with a single hit on Monday. Charlie Petron spoiled both the no-hitter and the shut-out, scoring a run in the second stanza to give St. Denis a short-lived lead. The Good Counsel batters slugged Jack McMonigle for 12 hits, scored three runs each in the second and the third innings to make a farce out of the affair. Bell, Morning, Jim Foley and Desert each had two hits for the winners.

St. Margarets did all its scoring in the second round to beat Purcell and Sacred Heart Thursday. A walk to Frank Coradetti, Bob Tabor's double and successive singles by Hen Cantagalli, Jim Barnett and Charlie Becker did the trick. Joe Verna had a homer for the losers in the first with the bases loaded, but his teammates could only get three other hits off Abbie Becker.

Unable to place a team on the field Monday night St. Colmans was forced to forfeit its game to St. Margarets.

Sacred Heart scored early and often to win a slugfest at Manoa Monday. The winners collected four in the second and two in the third to gain a lead they never surrendered. St. Laurence got four in the third in an outburst featured by Jim McCabe's triple with the sacks crammed.

Jim Kelly outpitched Jim McCabe as Annunciation gained a 1-0 verdict at Brookline Sunday. Kelly not only limited the losers to three hits but his single in the third scored Carl Votli with the run which decided the contest. Votli had opened the frame with a single and went to second on Frank Martin's sacrifice.

Fred Stone in Next Show at Bucks Playhouse

Fred Stone, famous veteran of the American stage, will star in "You Can't Take It With You," at the Bucks County Playhouse at the Bellevue Stratford Hotel, for a week beginning July 27.

"You Can't Take It With You," in which he will have the role of Grandpa Vanderhof, enjoyed one of Broadway's longest runs when it was produced in New York. The play, by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart, concerns the mad family of Grandpa Vanderhof, a genial philosopher who believes in living his own life and recognizes the futility of doing what is expected of him. It has been described as the maddest family in the history of the theatre.

The cast also includes Daisy Atherton, Judith Abbot, Nat Burns, Ross Hertz, Garry Davis, Jack Cannon, Harold J. Stone, Pauline Meyer, John Marryott, Ralph Chambers, Joan Croydon, Harold J. Stone, Guerita Donnelly, Judy Wikman, Betty Brew and others. Paul Porter, well-known Broadway stage manager, is the director.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Strawbridge

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Mrs. Anita Berwin Strawbridge, 67, "Meadow Lodge," Bryn Mawr, wife of Robert E. Strawbridge, Philadelphia merchant.

Mrs. Strawbridge, who was active in Red Cross work, died early Monday of a heart attack at Newport, R. I.

All-Stars Tell It To The Marines, 14-1; Await Invasion Of Fort Dix Tossers For Army Relief Game at Manoa Tuesday

Having told it to the Marines to the convincing tune of 14 to 1, the Main Line League all-stars will seek a clean sweep of their games with service teams when they clash with the strong Fort Dix nine at Manoa Tuesday in a twilight encounter.

This battle, which will be for the benefit of the Army Relief Fund figures to be more of an even-tempered affair than last week's Navy relief tilt with the Marines.

Fort Dix, coached by Corp. Art (Hutz) Blaker, former Friends Central and Wm. and Mary athlete who tutored at Camden High School before his induction, is rated the strongest service baseball team in the East.

The soldiers from Jersey have won 22 games and lost five, two of their defeats coming at the hands of the Philadelphia Athletics and Trenton of the Inter-State League. They haven't lost a game to an Army rival and are far ahead for the Second Corps Area championship, won last year by Fort Monmouth. They hold a 10-3 decision over Princeton, Eastern Intercollegiate League champs, and defeated Swarthmore College and Drexel Tech twice.

Heading their cast of outstanding baseball talent is Jack Wallaesa, the Eastern youth who played shortstop for Connie Mack's Athletics earlier this season. Wallaesa, a 6-foot-4, 196-pound, righthanded hitter, was rated by Mack as the No. 1 major league rookie of the year.

Arm Bands to Pass Firemen Through Air Raid Lines

In recent air raid drills, firemen who have been instructed to report to their fire houses on the sounding of the air raid alarms have not had the proper authority to pass through the air raid warden's lines.

The State Council of Defense at Harrisburg, therefore, has issued instructions to all Councils of Defense to incorporate the active members of volunteer fire companies in the Auxiliary Firemen's Corps of the U. S. Citizens' Defense Corps in the following manner:

The Chief of the incorporated fire company shall certify to the local Council of Defense the active members of his company who are required to report to the fire house when the alarm sounds for an air raid attack or drill.

These active members of incorporated fire companies shall be given Identification Cards and Arm Bands in the Auxiliary Firemen's Corps of the U. S. Citizens' Defense Corps by the Council of Defense.

Since many active members of the fire companies have already taken training at the regular fire schools and have had first aid training, they will need only additional training in the general course and gas defense. Active members who have not had this previous training, however, should be given the training by the fire instruction of the training division.

This training should be given, if possible, at the fire houses at the time of the regular meetings of the firemen.

Paid men of any fire department should be made members of the Auxiliary Firemen's Corps of the U. S. Citizens' Defense Corps immediately without further training. They should be supplied with arm bands and identification cards so that they might pass through the Air Raid Warden's lines.

The State Council of Defense advises that firemen must carry arm bands and identification cards with them at all times so that they can pass through the Air Raid Warden lines if the air raid alarm is sounded while off duty.

John Junta—Pitched two years with Durham (N. C.) of the Piedmont League. He's won six year. He's been hitting .600 since joining the Fort Dix team.

Walter Nowak, former Villanova College star who played one season with Trenton in the Inter-State League, plays second base and is one of the hardest hitters on the club. He collected 28 hits in 89 times at bat to date to boast a batting average of .314.

Other likely Fort Dix starters and their baseball background included: Bill Luzansky—Played outfield for Harrisburg in the Inter-State League. Batting average .242.

Ed Longacre—An outfielder from Syracuse of the International League. Batting average .373.

Joe Matera—Another outfielder who last played with Harleysville in the Eastern Pennsylvania League. Batting average .295.

Tad Cieslak—An infielder who played with Oklahoma City, and later with Wilmington in the Inter-State League. Batting average .391.

Graham Winter—Third baseman who played five years of organized ball with Greensboro (N. C.) Albany (N. Y.) and Springfield (Mass.) He's batting an even .300.

Norman Merrill—Pitched with New Orleans of the Southern Association. Property of Cleveland Indians. He's won five games and lost one.

John Junta—Pitched two years with Durham (N. C.) of the Piedmont League. He's won six games and lost three.

Steve Dembrowski—Formerly of Albany of the Canadian-American League. He won all four games he pitched for Fort Dix.

William Mulvihill—Former catcher with Marion of Ohio State League. Batting average, .397.

Officials of the league are striving to put over this game as successfully as the one at Narberth last Friday. More than 2500 turned out to see the Marines and contributed approximately $725 to the Navy Relief Fund.

The early comers were more impressed by the fancy marching of the special Marine drill team, which paraded to the game behind the drum and bugle corps of the Bullock-Sanderson Post, American Legion, than by the baseball playing of the Leathernecks. The latter had a bad day afield and were only able to offer fair resistance to the pick of the Main Line League.

Led by Joey Burns, Narberth third baseman, who drove out two doubles and a single for a perfect day at bat, the all-stars pounded three Marine hurlers for 15 hits. They scored in every inning, sewing up the game as early as the first inning when they tallied four runs.

Ray Persutti, of Gladwyne, and Bob Allison, of Manoa, did the hurling for the all-stars, allowing just seven hits between them in the seven inning game.

Hedgerow Theatre

The Hedgerow Theatre Company has discontinued its search for a location in Philadelphia during the present gas and tire shortage.

The audience, built up during nineteen years in Rose Valley, has adapted to trains, trolleys, buses, bicycles and walking, and many from neighboring communities are finding their way to the old-mill playhouse for the first time; and so the Hedgerow Company has decided to continue to operate as usual in the Valley.

Narberth Nine Signs Three New Players

Gene Davis, manager of Narberth's baseball club, announced the signing of three additional players yesterday.

They are pitchers Cliff Williamson, formerly of the All-Philas and Bartram, and Al Sullivan, ex-West Phil star who recently was released from the Army; and outfielder Bill Black of Chester.

Bill Woods, Villanova College ace who was on Narberth's list, has been taken off so that he might sign with Irvin's Collegians.

who applied for them, and additional rations of gas in the form of a "B" book will be given to those who can qualify for the extra allowance. To become eligible for more gasoline, the car owner must show two things; that it is necessary that he have more gasoline in order to get from home to his office or place of work; and that he has joined a car sharing club with three other persons.

Forming a car sharing club merely consists of finding three neighbors or fellow workers who travel in the same direction as the owner of the car, who are willing to share swap rides, and pool their cars.

Basically, the idea of sharing cars with neighbors, fellow workers, friends, represents a return to the cooperative way of life that people used to live. If salt was scarce on week-ends and the stores were closed, they borrowed. Somehow or other it brought them closer together, created good-will, effected understanding, resulted in a sufficiency despite an apparent scarcity.

The campaign for sharing cars will not only affect businessmen anxious to reach their places of business, war workers hurrying to their vital defense jobs, but in order for the campaign to be thoroughly effective, it must reach the housewives doing marketing, club members, volunteer civilian defense workers; in short, anyone who has need for frequent automobile transportation.
